

When a citizen aspires to a position of such importance as that of a seat in the lowest law making body of the nation, he should have some sound reason to offer to the people why his candidacy for their representative should receive their suffrage. If he be an incumbent and wishes to be retained in this office he should be able to show to his electorate, first, some success in initiative legislation by him; and secondly, some success in securing benefits for his district or constituency. This should be in nearly the same proportion that his own membership bears to the body of which he has been a member, or to which he now aspires to be a member. The pecuniary expenditures (appropriations) which he may have secured for his district should show in a somewhat resembling ratio, as that which the wealth of the population of his district and county bear to the wealth and population of the nation.

He should also be able to show interests, also communication and transportation lines, suffered a loss somewhat of a quandary to know why they think the property owners and voters of this district should select any one of them to represent this district in Congress. I would also ask two of them, Mr. Odell and Mr. Flowers, why the Republican party should honor them with preference so soon after their return to the Republican fold, with which they were but recently out of harmony. In 1914-1915 the records do not disclose that Mr. Flowers registered at all; and in 1916-1917 he registered "party affiliation not stated." Only last year Mr. Flowers was yet out of the Republican party. A high office is now in sight and he hurries back to the party he recently forsook and claims a right to run for this office against men who have never wavered from the party. Evidently they do not think that a process of purging or a period of atonement before the wayward should be taken back into the fold applies to a political party. Should such ethics apply only to that his legislative policy and spirit are in accord with the wishes of the electors in his constituency. If he can show that he has in some degree succeeded in these he may be returned to the high position; if not, he will be recalled.

No candidate seeking the responsibility of looking after the needs in California of the great constituency which has within its limits approximately one-seventieth of the taxable and assessable property of the United States (the State of California has only one-tenth of one per cent. of the taxable property of the United States), or who has not had actual, executive and successful experience in large affairs among the members of the Legislature, the finance, men of stern thought and cold decision, should ask the voters to elect him for so important a task. If he has not taken an active, well-known interest in the needs and solutions of the common problems of this district; if he cannot show that he has been one of those that have possibly saved half that amount in 1916.

The United States Government has now established a precedent by going inland, or up the Los Angeles River, to the protection work for nearly seven miles. Abundant data and statistics have been gathered by me during the past four years, and the Government assistance should not only be continued up the Los Angeles and San Gabriel rivers to the mountains, but the Government should maintain and the floods stored there for irrigation and power. Nine large reservoir sites exist in the mountains of the National Forest Service, which I have surveyed and mapped more than twenty years ago. The cost of constructing these reservoirs by the Flood Control Commission would be paid by the taxpayers to undertake, and should be a just and proper obligation.

During the four years that I have been connected with this flood control work, the people of this Congressional District have accepted my assistance in the following manner so congenially and faithfully that I have been enabled to show them the way to success in every problem that has been presented to me. I have been a faithful and true servant to them.

No hours have been too long, no study too arduous, no holidays too precious to give to them.

When our Flood Control bond election was won, and we required a State appropriation of $250,000, the people of this district, businessmen, banks and civic organizations of every city and town in this District (with but two or three exceptions) have advanced the money, advanced the pecuniary assistance needed, and also the accounting that was rendered to them of the not point to some of the useful work that has been done by the people of this district, and to his acquaintance with the people whom he has tried to help, showing his personal knowledge of the people and their needs, but to the fact that his claims for this favor from the people are very small.

Our district and county have not been having any consideration from the government to which we are entitled, having one-seventieth of the nation's taxable property. The Federal Government have been favored by the Ninth district, and even the entire county of Los Angeles for that matter—since the beginnings of the government. There is scarcely a section, city or town, in all the beautiful valleys in this district that are not frequently injured by the waters from the National Forest Reserve. The value of the comparable value of our county is $170,000,000. Reliable figures taken from Government documents show that the assessable property of Los Angeles is $170,000,000, and the combined assessable property of the entire States of Utah, Wyoming, New Mexico and Vermont, or in other words, we have within the boundaries of our County 170,000,000 of taxable property of this nation.

When the Capital Issues Committee in Washington withheld its approval for the sale of $250,000,000 of our bonds for flood control and irrigation, they were making objections at a time when we were practically disapproving the sale of all bonds throughout the country, and now we have permission to sell the same amount of bonds.

POLITICS.

Now and since a loyal Republican—never a side-wind, not an offshoot—have been attempted at times to disrupt the Republican party. The registration records do giving of the war, are negligible when compared with the benefits derived from the Elvenorth district which lies to the east and south of us, and one which has but a comparatively small assessed valuation and population. Los Angeles county, which embraces two Congressional districts, and represents a considerable area between 2 1/2 and 3 million dollars, has as its objective only an appropriation for a balloon school at Arcadia amounting to about $600,000.

We now have shipbuilding in our harbors to the amount of nearly one hundred million dollars for the U. S. Government, and yet we have been asking for an appropriation for two or three months past for an appropriation of but one and one-half million dollars for a dry dock at the Los Angeles Harbor, a

The United States Government cannot be said to actually be aware of its obligations to us, for year after year, instead of appropriating sufficient funds for forest fire protection and the maintenance of the U. S. National Forest Reserve, that the floods originating upon them might be somewhat retarded, the Government has actually been coming to this county and asking the Supervisors for as much as $10,000 per year to aid in this work upon its own domain. Only last year the Forestry Service asked the Supervisors for $7090 to aid in measuring the devastating floods which arise upon its own property.

One of the most fertile and productive valleys in the world lies in the southeastern part of this State. Its value to this district is as great as that of any other district. We have a clear Republican sheet.

PROHIBITION.

Have always favored Prohibition. Was born and raised in Eastern Kansas, and of the same family as the late ex-Gov. John P. St. John. While yet a young man, my family and myself assisted Mr. St. John in procuring a prohibition amendment to the Constitution of that State, and until very recently I have held letters of commendation from him, that service being rendered in 1897.

Came to California in 1897, and selected Long Beach as my home because I wished to have my two young sons brought up in a prohibition city. I am in favor of national prohibition, and am pleased to note that indications are it will soon be a settled issue.

very necessary adjunct for a harbor, and especially where this money is so badly needed. In any way, but to date we have no positive assurance that we will get this appropriation. We are, however, getting some small appropriations for dredging and channel work in the regular way through the Rivers and Harbors Bill, of about $430,000, and some further small sums for the submarine base which amounts to about $50,000. These few appropriations are but bagatelle when compared with those secured by the Representative of the 11th District, where we find as follows:

Cann Kearnay cantonment,	$4,000,000
Rockwell Aviation Field,	3,000,000
estimated	3,000,000
Naval Station, Norfolk Island, estimated,	3,000,000
estimated	3,000,000

As though it were contiguous to it, this valley has announced another point of great anxiety by the flooded Colorado River. Federal assistance should be secured to put this river back into its channel and to build the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce has often sent resolutions asking that attention be given to it at Washington, but as yet no one has attempted to solve this problem to any degree of success—no one seems to know HOW.

It is my firm conviction that second only to winning the war, the food and clothing, the clean water, and particularly the conservation of soils, is the most important and vital problem confronting the voters of this district. The future of the beautiful county depends upon its solution.

EQUAL RIGHTS.

I believe that every woman is a citizen of proper age should have the same rights and responsibilities as men. This State and County are better politically and socially since the ballot was given to women.

PATRIOTISM.

Before the enactment of the draft law I financed my elder son, who is now in the military service, that he might go as a volunteer to France in the Ambulance Service. He is now a Lieutenant and active service in the Signal Corps of the United States in France.

At the same time I offered my own services to our Government, agreeing to give up my position as a member of the House of Representatives. My P.S.R. is 1137.

In addition to the regular flying stations at North Island, there are two subsidiary flying stations.

A glance at the above will show that the Ninth District and Los Angeles County, which contain about three times the wealth and population of the Eleventh District, finds they are receiving (for actual figures which we have) about one-thirteenth of the benefits given the Eleventh District. The Congressman from the Eleventh Dis-

Those of you who have been living in the Ninth District since as early as 1865 know that since that date nearly sixty miles of new river channels have been formed by floods sweeping down through the valley between the mountains and the sea.

In studying the platform of Mr. Odell, I find nothing to indicate that he is familiar with the war contracts and other improvements which this wealthy and populous district has been securing, and which are now being missed by the adjoining district of much smaller wealth and population, nor does he indicate interest in or a knowledge of our greatest problem, the control and conservation of our flood waters and the soils of this district.

The war in which we are engaged is not a war of any political party; it is the people's war; the war of the American nation for the liberation of the world's democracy. Chairman Hays of the National Republican party is appealing to every patriot, whatever his politics, to keep his party's clean politics out of the war management. He is calling upon all men and women to support the Government without a thought of party. The crying need of the hour is victory before the hour is failure. It is because of the Democracy and Republican soldiers' failures, and their blood mingling in the same pools, and their spirits returning hourly to the same Maker.

At the helm of our Government is

trict knows HOW:

The most urgent need in the New Britain district for a victorious war, is government aid in the regulation of the streams which in flood times, run wildly down from the National Forest Reserve (cover the forests) and where the Government should aid in (storing the waters) to the harbors which they repeatedly fill with silt. Between these two Government interests—an interval of time may be applied to agriculture, horticulture and commercial

About every two or three years the aid of the United States Congress in roads and tora roads to end by floods. For four years the people in this district have been struggling with this problem. During all our efforts to formulate and obtain the aid of the Government have never to my knowledge, found any of the candidates for Congress gave us any assistance, interest or even friendship, possibly because opposition was offered; and I am particularly so opposed campaign and election, I am now in a Democratic President, and Democratic Congress, whose war policy I shall support, and I am supported by me if elected, with the same earnest loyalty that I have supported my own Republican party in the past. My first and last aim is to get the Government to help in the war in the shortest time, and my second aim shall be to win all the assistance that I can for my constituents and district.

Respectfully submitted to the people of the New Britain district.

SLAYER PLEADS NOT GUILTY.

In Superior Judge Paul J. Mc-Cormick's court yesterday Henry Rodriguez, who ran amuck in the Plaza district April 26 last, and killed Solomon Kinderman, a clerk and pawnbroker, pleaded not guilty to the charge of murder.

USELESS EXPENSE.

Many join fight for
state commissions.

A DELUGE of telephone calls
from taxpayers protesting against the heavy taxes of this city and county have been received by Secretary H. M. Burgwald of the Association for Betterment of Public Service. Letters are pouring in by every mail from business men and farmers of Southern California urging the establishment of branches of the association in other communities. W. M. Burrol, an organizer of Highland, writes: "I wish to express my approval of the movement to put the administration of the business affairs of our State on a business basis. I have not been in sympathy with the Non-partisan League that has been operating so extensively in the Northwest because it is a class movement of farmers and laborers only. Although a farmer myself I am not willing that any movement of this kind should be left to one or two classes.
To be permanently successful it must be supported by all. I believe the farmers and fruit growers of California will join heartily in the aims and work of the Association for the Betterment of Public Service."

Federal Judge Hedges this morning will instruct the jury in the case of Ricardo Florio, Magon and Librado Rivera, on trial on a charge of violation of the Espionage and Trading with the Enemy acts. The trial ended precipitately yesterday when Attorney J. H. Ryckman told the court that the defense would put no witnesses on the stand to refute
the testimony for the government.

ANTAGONISM TO WAR.

"The names of these persons ap-

showed the defendants' sympathy for them and proves beyond ques-scious of the situation but actively of the war," Mr. Ryckman remarked.

CARNegie LIBRARY BARS
HEARST'S PUBLICATIONS.

Action by Huntington Beach Board of Trustees is Unanimous.

THE Board of Trustees of the Carnegie Public Library in Huntington Beach has barred out the Hearst publications. So far as reported it is the first of the kind in the country to take this action.

Action against the Los Angeles
Examiner and Good Housekeeping magazine was taken by the library board at Huntington Beach, Thursday night. Trustees A. W. Griffith made a motion that the Hearst publications which were on the library subscription list at that time be discontinued immediately.

When asked if the library had been a subscriber to the Cosmopolitan,
Miss Proctor said:
"No, we have not been getting the Cosmopolitan for a long time."

Asked why she discontinued the Cosmopolitan subscription Miss Proctor replied:
"It did not seem to me like the sort of publication we should have
on our reading tables."

"What President Wilson Says Goes."

President Wilson has a broader point of view in regard to war necessities than any of the rest of us can possibly have, and if he feels that the government should control
the telegraph systems of the country during the war, we can only acquiesce in the judgment of our Commander-in-Chief. So far as the Western Union is concerned, we simply stand awaiting orders."

This was the statement made by Newcomb Carlton, president of the Western Union Telegraph Company,
shortly after his arrival here last evening in the "Western Union Telegraph Company Business Car," the designation now given what was formerly the president's private car.
Accompanying Mr. Carlton on this trip of inspection in the Pacific Coast district are Vice-presidents J. C.
Willeber, C. M. York and W. N.
Fashbaugh, all of New York. They expect to remain for about ten days
on the Pacific Coast, making a general inspection.

Regarding the situation between the company and its employees, Mr.
Carlton said:
"One of the most inspiring scenes
I have ever witnessed was the constitutional convention of the Association of Western Union Employees held in Chicago last week. It was a delegate body, representing more than 80 per cent of the employees of this company. Its purpose was to formulate a constitution under which the employees may safeguard their interests and bargain regarding their employment. The movement originated with the employees, and has been managed entirely by them, but it meets with the full approval of the Western Union Company."

"We do not anticipate any trouble
with the Commercial Telegraphers' Union. A very small percentage of our employees belong to it, probably not more than 1000 men. We opposed any recognition of this association."

Regarding the business of the Western Union, Mr. Carlton said:
"The business of the Western Union has increased so rapidly, that it keeps us busy. The company used to lease its wires to other concerns, but it has now cancelled all but one of these leases, and needs all the lines it has. The Western Union does 80 per cent of the telegraph business of the United States, and its wires reach into the maritime provinces of Canada as well."

Mr. Carlton stated that he was in Washington on Tuesday last week, before the Senate Committee, where he had before that body information concerning the physical properties of the Western Union, and that, while this company stands ready to turn over its system to the government upon demand, it meanwhile putting forth every effort to adequately handle the constantly increasing telegraph business of this country.

By Jeanne Redman.

Combination recitals for pupils

have proven successful this season,

and are much to be preferred to an entire evening of either one instrument, or, unless he be a phenomenon, one performer. Last evening at the Mason Opera House, Spencer

and Frascogna presented in concert Florence Davis, pianist, and Giffella Elchert, soprano. It was rather a pretentious programme,

with several well-known concert

numbers and operatic arias, but the young women acquitted themselves

successfully and received adequate applause from rather a small audience.

The pianist of the evening leaned toward American composers, of whom she played MacDowell,

Foot, Campbell-Tipton, Boellinger,

Liebling and a difficult Scherzo-

Etude in Sixths of Spencers. Miss

Davis has a powerful tone, and plays with considerable abandon. Her force is at times tremendous, and

GRAUMAN'S ANNOUNCE

IMPORTANT PLANS.

Will Produce Pictures and will Build a

Palatial New Theater.

BY GRACE KINGSLEY.

An announcement of much importance to the film world was made yesterday, when Sid

Grauman announced the fact that he and his father, D. J. Grauman, are at the present time producing motion picture productions, and that they are planning the building of a new theater here.

The Graumans were formerly famous in theatrical circles on the Coast for their activities as producers of musical comedy, and as owners of a string of theaters. Last year they have gained new fame by the establishment of their palatial picture house at the corner of Third and Broadway in this city, which has proven one of the most successful ventures in the country.

According to the plans of the Graumans, as announced yesterday,

father and son expect to incorporate the most famous and successful

theaters of the State of California and to be the sole financiers of the Grauman Feature Players Company.

They are at present planning to reconstruct a studio already built, but they have decided to build a studio

of their own, according to their plans, stated yesterday.

As the moving spirit of the concern, Sid Grauman has certain ideas

he wishes to incorporate in the making of his pictures. He is desirous of the outgrowth of his experience in exhibiting pictures, during which he has had his finger on the pulse of the public, and that he has succeeded in discovering the temper

of the public to which his theater is to be dedicated. In the first place, he declares he means to give the public the best of the making of his pictures, producing only three or four during a year; and while he states he does not have in mind the engaging of any

well-known stars, he means to select the best of the actors and actresses, and make the principal parts of his pictures. He means to make the role make the star. In the second place, he means that all his picture stories shall have the quality of being new, and, therefore,

providing the new lasts so long—his first picture will have a war background.

As to his stories, Mr. Grauman states his present plan is to buy widely read novels and stories,

and rather than depending on original

SACRED TO MEN.

Woman Who Offers to Take

Place of Absent Husband

is Not Accepted.

Women have inalienable

prerogatives, according to Federal

Judge Trippett, but being a Federal juror is not one of them. Yesterday Mrs. Frank

C. Smith, wife of a taxman, subpoenaed for jury duty, appeared in his stead to explain that her spouse had urgent business affairs. She attended the court by expressing a desire to be sworn in his place.

No woman jurors have been impaneled for Federal jury service, the court did not agree to the proposition. He advised Mrs. Smith to inform her husband to appear in court

tomorrow morning or a bench

warrant would be issued against him.

petitions, the period for such action

ending on Thursday, July 18.

Most of the important offices in the State are to be filled, in addition to the thirteen Congressional berths.

Those seeking the Republican nomination for Governor are C. M.

Fickert, District Attorney of San Francisco, Mayor Rolph, William D.

Stephens, the incumbent; J. O.

Hayes, publisher of the San Jose

Mercury-Herald; C. A. A. McGee,

San Diego Attorney, and former Superior Judge Walter Bordwell of Los Angeles, Rolph, Thomas Lee Wool-

wine, District Attorney of Los Angeles county, and Francis J. Heney, were after the Democratic nomi-

Governor. Those seeking the Republican nomination for this post

were State Senators J. A. Rominger

and Arthur S. Breed of Long Beach

and Oakland, respectively; C. C.

Young of Berkeley, speaker of the assembly, and Warren Shannon of San Francisco.

Frank Jordan, Republican, and incumbent, was unopposed in the run for Secretary of State. Atty.-Gen.

U. S. Webb, Republican, was the only candidate for Auditor of Accounts, and John S. Chambers, Republican, and State Treasurer Friend

W. Richardson, Republican, were unopposed also.

Edward Hyatt, incumbent, and

Will C. Wood, commissioner of secondary schools, confronted each other for the office of State Superintendent of Schools. The office is nonpartisan.

FOR SUPREME BENCH.

Supreme Justices Curtis D. Wilbur of Los Angeles and William G.

Lorigan of San Jose, and Appellate

Judge Thomas J. Lennon of San

Jose are seeking the two vacancies in the Supreme Court. The term of one judge in each of the three appellate courts will expire and the incumbents were seeking re-election.

They are Justices John E. Richards,

San Francisco; J. C. Chipman, San Francisco; and William T. James, Los Angeles.

All of the Congressional incumbents were said to be seeking re-election with the exception of Dennis C. Church, Democrat, of San Francisco, who is retiring. Henry

Hawson, Democrat, was seeking to succeed him.

ion, as the union method of using a strike as its weapon, of course, carries with it the purpose of destroying continuity of service. COMMERCIAL LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET.

There was a good demand for honey on the local produce exchange yesterday and prices held up throughout the session owing to the fact that shipments are falling off considerably. The available supply of white orange honey is about cleaned up and many of the growers are bidding higher prices. The new honey from the West is only fifty-six men ready to go on strike. The Western Union has more than 50,000 employees, and probably 40,000 of them are directly connected with the operation of our wires.

"President Wilson fully understands our position. The vote of the National War Labor Board regarding the Taft-Walsh report was 7 to 5. These two men and the five labor members of the board voted for the report, and the five business members voted against it. As it was not a unanimous vote, the report was not adopted."

The Western Union Company understands that in organizing the National War Labor Board, it was intended that organizations that were unionized should remain so, and those pursuing the policy of an open shop should not be changed. By inference, it is equally clear that organizations nonunion in character should also pursue that policy during the period of the war. It appears clear that the board should act as mediator in disputes that arise between employers and employees under the labor relationship and policies that existed prior to the war, and that is the telegraph company's understanding of the effect of the President's proclamation approving and adopting such principles.

"If this is not true and if these principles are interpreted as compelling this company and others in like situation to abandon their settled policy and leaving outside organizations free to work as they may see fit among their employees, then the hands of the employers are tied and the principles of the War Labor Board furnish a cloak behind which a propaganda for the unionizing of labor in every industry, may be carried on without let or hindrance."

START NOBLE'S TRIAL ON CHARGE OF FRAUD.

ALLEGED HE ATTEMPTED TO SECURE SAN DIEGO HOTEL ILLEGALLY.

The trial of Lloyd E. Noble, charged with misusing the mails to defraud, began before Federal Judge Trippett yesterday. In response to questions propounded by Assistant United States Attorney Young, Fred H. Richman, Los Angeles money lender, admitted having accepted from C. H. Cannon, prosecuting witness in the case, a note for $4250, drawing 2 per cent. interest monthly, for which Cannon had received $4319 in cash.

Cannon is alleged to have owned several hundred acres of land near Riverside for which he desired in exchange a hotel in San Diego, known as the Robert E. Lee. Noble, known as having an agent, is alleged to have accepted blank signed deeds to the property, which to effect the exchange. He is declared to have thereupon filed in the name of his wife as grantee, A. E. Herrington, a deed-in-law of Noble, is mentioned as having, as a notary public, acknowledged the transaction.

Herrington showed a lapse of memory when questioned in regard to a reputed visit of himself and Noble to a vacant house at No. 828 North Avenue 56, Los Angeles, on which visit Herrington, according to testimony given by him at the preliminary examination, declared he had carried his notarial book into the house. Yesterday when asked to show that Noble and Herrington visited the house for the express purpose of altering the notary's book with relation to the Cannon transaction.

SNUBBED BY HUSBAND.

Also Not Spoken to for Weeks at a Time, Says Woman—Divorce Is Granted to Her.

In divorce proceedings before Judge Wood yesterday, Mrs. Louise Krueger told the court that her husband, George L. Krueger, snubbed her, went for weeks at a time without speaking to her and was disagreeable. Finally he told her to pack up her things.

"I certainly was glad to have him leave if he wanted to go," she said. "Home had never been so disagreeable."

"It is refreshing to hear the plaintiff tell the truth," commented Judge Wood as he granted her a decree.

THE NEW.

Latest View. IN STORES AND HOMES. NOVELTIES, IDEAS AND PRACTICAL SUGGESTIONS.

Up-to-Date: Short sleeves, reaching to about halfway between the shoulder and the elbow. In the popular summer fabrics these are loveliness itself. To edge your linen frock of pink, blue or lavender with bias folds of plaited gingham combining several tints in a general effect with that of the plain material predominant.

Embroidered butterflies in snowy silk to adorn the front of the black silk hose for wear with pumps or slippers of black. To have all blouses reaching well below the waist line, on the outside of the skirt, doing away with that saved-off effect too often the result of the tucked-in blouse.

Blanket Exquisitely. As if to justify their cost, the newly offered blankets of fleecy wool are in the most alluring colors. Such beauty as theirs would give the cash from the most stingy purse. Not alone the usual shades of pink and blue, but clear, lovely yellow, lavender and plaids combining several tints are shown. Looking at them in the broad window of that so-reliable store on Seventh street, where reliability is one of the best earned assets of the store's long life, remarks about such blanket beauty took the form of actual covetousness.

Grandmotherlike. What with the quaint fringes used upon garments, upon parasols and handbags, and the primly folded fringes of dotted net and mull, the very spirit of our grandmothers seems to have appeared in our midst this season. Then there are reproductions of the antique ribbons, used on hats and as negligitude for frocks, which do their full share in bringing to life the days of yore in dress.

On Fashion's Fling Line.

Blue serge dresses for small

Those Sweet Things! Since war conservation has led to stucco conservatism and candies and other sweets have become more and more precious, lovely jars are more and more desired. The remainder of the summer, not only does fashion demand cottons and linens, but our summer clamors for cool attire and sales coming unusually early present our opportunity to purchase and to save.

Dolly Things. There is scarcely an article of use or of furniture, on the market for the household which is not made on small for children. I was interested in observing that even the porch furniture now so popular was duplicated in miniature. I found even the swinging seats, with canvas windshields and magazine pockets, of khaki and of cretonne. So that Madame la Doll may take the air in perfect ease, just as those Brobdnagians the parents of her parents are wont to do.

And for Boys. "It's a Packard!" "No sir! It's a Hudson Super-six!" Those were the controversial statements that greeted my ears, I passed through one of the toy departments the other day. I looked down and saw a group of small persons—boys "of course" I started to say, but "of course" does not apply since the onset of farmettes—but anyhow these were boys, bending nearly to the floor to closely observe the "make" of a group of automobiles—boy-size. I wish I had a picture of these future motorists so cunning were they in their miniature manish togetherness so earnestly engaged in their arguments.

Khaki Lettering.

If you are truly in rapport with the spirit of things as they are, you will write to your boy "over there" on khaki-colored stationery! This is the very latest for such correspondence. And it is pretty, too. To be ultra, you will, of course, have the emblem in gilt—the war order which you belong. I mean, of course—for of course you do belong to some working war order.

More Dress.

A result of the good wages now being received by women in the East and a long ago attained fact in England and even in France, is that those women are buying more and better clothes. Not that they are extravagant, but many who now for the County Jail as laborer by occupation. No one has been permitted to see him on orders of the Federal officers. He denies being a spy or in any way connected with the dissemination of propaganda on the Pacific Coast. It was further revealed that he worked for a big factory in Chicago in 1915, and a year later he came to California, working in various parts of the State as a laborer. He is apparently well-educated.

In the belief of government officers, there are dozens of Germans of the same class as Florin operating on this Coast. A hat of leghorn straw is faced with pale pink taffeta silk. Shell-pink organdie makes the daintiest of summer frocks. We are promised two coat allouettes for fall—one the severely straight and military, the other inclining to the circumspect.

White smocks are collared, cuffed and pocketed with cretonne. Turbans and high-crowned sailors are important for fall. Frank Owen Worsle.

Doctors Declare Condition of Police Commissioner is Very Critical. Frank D. Owen, Police Commissioner, is critically ill at his residence, No. 1655 Rockwood street, afflicted with stomach trouble in an acute form.

Several weeks ago Mr. Owen took sick, but he partially recovered from the disease. A few days ago while on the street, he suffered a relapse, and since then his decline has been rapid. Yesterday he was conscious only a part of the time and was apparently growing weaker. Drs. McNeill, Allan and Wernick are in consultation on the case.

GERMANY MUST GO, SAYS MANAGER OF RED CROSS.

Our Duty to See What it Stands for is Removed, Declares Maj. Simmons.

ALTHOUGH our Allied line on the western front has bent and may bend still more, I am confident that it can never break," was the message conveyed by Maj. George W. Simmons, southwestern division manager of the American Red Cross, who has just returned from three months on the fighting line at Amiens, to some 300 members of the Red Cross Campaign Committee who gathered him a dinner last evening at the Alhambra.

"We have so far preferred to exchange real estate for human lives," he declared. "As yet we cannot consider that the horrible sacrifice of human life is quite necessary. Our men now the Hun down by the thousands, and standing with their backs against a stone wall, cry: 'They shall not pass.' And they shall never pass."

"We have made the mistake of measuring the enemy by our own standards. At first none of us believed what we heard of their atrocities. But let me tell you that every single story is true a thousandfold. The whole Teuton scheme of Kultur is an elaborate lie. It is proven them without fault. It is our solemn duty to see that people's ideals removed from the earth. Germany today is down to the lowest depths of infamy when she takes to bombing noncombatant towns, and destroys helpless women and babies."

WHAT RED CROSS DID.

And in contrast to the atrocities of the Hun, Maj. Simmons outlined the humanitarian work of the American Red Cross among the stricken towns of France and Belgium. He related how it was the American Red Cross that, by placing the Italian villages with American flags, was able instantly to re-establish the morale of the broken Italian army, and how the children of France and Belgium, maimed and torn by "kultur," are being rehabilitated by the organization.

"In Belgium we are taking care of thousands of orphans," he said. "And it is fitting that we should, because but for the sacrifice made by their fathers, we in America, should have seen the same desolation today. Everywhere the Belgians are flocking to kiss the hand of the American Red Cross, which came to them just in time to save them from utter starvation. One Belgian child when given an egg to eat, at first could not be prevailed upon to touch it."

"Why," she said, "do I get a whole egg for myself? We used to have only one to divide among three children twice a week."

ENGLAND'S PART IN WAR.

"Don't ever say that Great Britain has not done her big share in this war. Not only with her navy, but she saved us from the Huns, but thousands of her sons have died on the field of honor. In France nearly everyone you meet is in mourning. But in England their is no mourning."

ROUSTED AND RE-STATE- THICE, GOES TO COURT.

A PETITION for a writ of mandamus compelling Damon Lodge No. 6, K. O. P., to reinstate him as a member, was filed by H. W. Markham in the Superior Court yesterday. The complaint states that he has been a member of the lodge since 1908. Charges were preferred against him by Joseph Bridges, then Chancellor Commander, he says, accusing him of the misappropriation of $152.75. A trial committee found him guilty and the lodge voted to suspend him. This trial, Mr. Markham says, was held contrary to the laws of the lodge, and was prejudicial to his rights. An appeal was taken to the Grand Chancellor Commander and sustained. The case was re-referred to the lodge and Mr. Markham ordered reinstated.

According to the police, Lopez made a wide turn into Jefferson street, misjudging the distance from the curb. The force of the collision caused a basal fracture of the skull. A major operation was performed at the Crocker-Huffman hospital immediately after the boy was brought in, but he died two hours later.

The body has been taken to the Mortuary for undertaking purposes.

CLASS BIGGEST THIS YEAR, WITH OTHERS TO FOLLOW.

Sixty-seven more Red Cross aides will be graduated today from the nurses' training school, taught by Mrs. Kate B. Johns of San Francisco, at Eighth and Alvarado streets. This is Mrs. Johns' third class this year, twenty-two aides having been graduated April 10 and a sixty-five June 12.

Mrs. Johns, who is a graduate of St. Luke's Hospital, San Francisco, has been highly successful with all her classes, the graduates receiving marks ranging from 90 to 100 per cent. These volunteer nurses are of the finest type of young American womanhood and are anxious to be placed in service as soon as possible, either in this country or abroad.

There are now forty aides in the County Hospital taking the two month course that completes the training and twenty more are on the waiting list.

Friends of the graduating nurses are invited to attend the exercises, which will be held at 7:30 o'clock tonight at Fraternal Brotherhood Hall, Ninth and Figueroa streets. There will be an entertainment followed by a dance.

CITY WELCOMES NOTED FINANCIER OF FRANCE.

quite prosperous. The gold deposits of the Bank of France since the French war had been $2,277,000,000. Every week sees the people depositing from $1,000,000 to $2,000,000. The confidence of the public in the government is now complete and the people are certain of ultimate victory. They think France will be victorious and then more prosperous.

"In an address on 'Shipping' before the Chamber of Commerce of France at its banquet at the Hotel Maryland last night, Mr. Casenave declared that this is a war of maritime transportation.

"For a long time France looked on the ship situation as critical, realizing that the whole problem of transporting food and munitions rested on America. Now we can say without hesitating that America can produce 800,000 tons of shipping a month.

"Looking at such astounding figures, showing the progress of shipbuilding in the past six months, the problem of war transportation will be practically solved."

After speaking in Pasadena, Mr. Casenave addressed the University Club in this city, discussing the topic the absolute need of forcing Germany to return Alsace and Lorraine to France. "There can be no assured peace in Europe as long as Germany has control of the coal and iron supply," he said. "She has a monopoly of coal in Westphalia, and in Alsace and Lorraine a corner on the iron supply. These iron deposits will play a large factor in the final peace negotiations, but France will never sign a peace treaty as long as Germany retains dominion over her two lost states."

Prof. Foulis, director of the Ellis Club, sang the "Marseillaise" while the audience stood at attention. The number was enthusiastically applauded with a "Hip, Hip, Hooray" and "Vive la France!"

TOLD BY VERDIER.

Lieut. Paul Verdier, citizen of San Francisco and soldier of France, who wears the Croix de Guerre and is aide to the Minister Plenipotentiary, related war episodes. He told of the siege of Verdun and stated that the French government is thinking of dedicating there an area five miles square as a national park, that the people in Alsace and Lorraine will witness the action wrought by the Germans.

CHARGES A PLOT TO GET HER PROPERTY.

A charge of conspiracy, alleged against a number of persons by Mrs. Harriet A. Canfield, former proprietress of the Hotel Canfield, who was arrested yesterday, was filed in the Superior Court today. The complaint states that the defendants are plotting to get her property, which she says the defendants got from her by inducing her to sign papers while she was in jail. They deny it.

SOUTHLAND DIRECTOR.

Marshall Stimson Given Wider Jurisdiction in Four-Minute Men Organization.

Marshall Stimson, Los Angeles county chairman of the four-minute men, has been named associate State director, with jurisdiction over Southern California. It was announced last night at the speakers' meeting No. 721 South Hill street. Charles A. Adams of San Francisco, with the same title, will look after the northern half of the State. William V. Cowan will now be State director.

ONLY CURE IS A NEW JAIL.

City's Present Institution Impossible, County Grand Jury Reports.

The only remedy for the present deplorable City Jail is a new one, according to a report filed yesterday with the Mayor and Council by the jail committee of the county grand jury. The report was referred to the Public Safety Committee No. 721 South Hill street.

The jail committee has made a thorough investigation of all the jails in the county and reported that none is in worse shape than the city institution.

The jail at University station, Wilmington, San Pedro and Sawtelle were found to be in good condition.

[The Times invites strong, clear, bright expression of opinion on current subjects timely, pertinent and popular. Briefly should be kept in sight. Editorial privilege is reserved. Letters are subject to condensation and are not returned unless accompanied by return address.]

The "Masses" and the Taxes.

LOS ANGELES, July 13.—[To the Editor of The Times:] In your recent editorial headed "What Are You Going to Do?" the second paragraph begins as follows: "The greatest danger to democratic government is the inertia of the masses." You then apply this to the enormous increase in taxation in this State largely increased by the numerous commissions of various kinds.

Now what is the cause of this inertia or apathy of the masses? Briefly, it is a wrong idea as to what constitutes a taxpayer. How many times have I heard one person say to another, when municipal extravagance and increase in taxation were being discussed, "What does he care, he doesn't own any property." Let us ask about this, by imagining the following conversation:

"Does your friend have a family and live in a rented house?"

"Yes."

"Who pays the taxes on it?"

"Well, don't you suppose that the taxes he pays go to make up the amount of the monthly rental he charges?"

"I suppose it does—never thought about it that way before."

No—and he probably never thought that every time he patronized his grocer or his butcher or even when he bought a pair of shoes for one of his children he was indirectly a taxpayer. Carried to its ultimate conclusion, each and every one of us is a taxpayer, whether we own a foot of real estate or not.

RETRACTS PROMISE TO HOLD MEN'S JOBS.

CITY REVERSES ITS PLAN TO PROTECT EMPLOYEES
IN SERVICE.

City employees who join the army or navy will not be given indefinite leaves of absence, according to a decision reached yesterday by the Civil Service Commission. The commission, however, will permit the names of the national defenders to remain upon the eligible lists and give them jobs as soon as possible after they return from the front.

ADDRESSES CREDITMEN.

Former Head of Valparaiso University Speaks of Trade in South America.

Dr. William F. Rice, for twelve years president of the Valparaiso University of Chile, was the principal speaker at the July meeting and dinner of the Associated Retail Creditmen of Los Angeles, held last night at the Sierra Madre Club. Dr. Rice spoke on "Our South American Business" and urged that this country take advantage of the fact that European countries which formerly had a monopoly on South American business are not in the commercial field at present.

GETS DECREE AND CHILD.

Wife of Dismissed County Employee Wins Uncontested Cross-Complaint.

Edwin C. Morris did not appear to press his divorce suit against Beagle Morris, and Judge Avery yesterday granted Mrs. Morris a decree on her cross-complaint, gave her the custody of their child and ordered Mr. Morris to pay her $50 a month for support.

The evidence coupled the names of Mrs. Ethel Swartz and Mr. Morris. The couple were found making love in an apartment house through the blinds of the window and later entered the room. Mr. Morris was an employee of the county health office and was dismissed "for the good of the service." He had made defendant in a $10,000 heart-balm suit by Roy Swartz, husband of Ethel Swartz.

NAMES "VICTORY DAY" FOR NEXT MONDAY.

In honor of the great victory being achieved by the American troops on the western front, Councilman Bert Farmer, acting Mayor, yesterday designated next Monday as "Victory Day" in Los Angeles and dedicated it to the invalid soldiers of France.

The William Sandoz mission is in Los Angeles raising funds for the war effort. In honor of the day, Mr. Farmer has authorized this mission to conduct a public street campaign for funds here next Monday. An organization of prominent Los Angeles women, and several hundred Los Angeles girls will take the day to solicit funds and will sell small souvenir medals for the occasion.
